Angelo Nasios (Long Island, New York) is a active voice in the tarot community. He is the author of two books, Tarot: Unlocking the Arcana and Tarot Tracker: A Year-Long Journey. Well known for his popular YouTube channel, Angelo produces educational tarot videos.

Angelo began reading tarot at thirteen years old. At twenty-three he was voted Tarosophist of the Year by popular vote by members of the Tarosophy Tarot Association. Angelo has been a feature presenter at the Tarosophy Conferences (TarotCon).

Angelo's love for the metaphysics has been a long affair. Since an early age Angelo was attracted to the unknown and other worldly. Being Greek, Angelo felt a strong connection to the ancient religion of his ancestors. Angelo follows a modern adaptation of Hellenistic polytheism and philosophy. The Greeks are well known for their Oracles, namely the Oracle of Delphi. Angelo found the tarot to be his form of carrying on the legacy of his culture's oracular and mantic traditions. Tarot is a skill that has come to him naturally.

Along with tarot, Angelo studies the Western Esoteric Tradition, comparative religion and history. Angelo holds a B. A in Religion and is currently a graduate student in earning his degree in history.
